THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN WORK AND SOCIETY

Wednesday, November 5 (4th-3rd millennia)

9h30-10h00  Registration

10h00-10h15  B. Lion and C. Michel
  Welcome and Introduction

10h15-10h45  F. Joannès
  Historiography on Studies Dedicated to Women and Economy in the REFEMA context

10h45-11h15  Keynote speech I
  J. S. Cooper
  The Job of Sex: The Social and Economic Role of Prostitutes in Ancient Mesopotamia

11h15-11h30  Coffee break

11h30-12h00  Catherine Breniquet
  Weaving, Potting and Churning: Women at Work during the Uruk
  Period. Evidences from the Cylinder Seals

12h00-12h30  Camille Lecompte
  The Representation of Women in Lexical Texts

12h30-14h00  Lunch

14h00-14h30  Fumi Karahashi
  Women and Land in the Presargonic Lagash E2-MI2 Corpus

14h30-15h00  Maria-Giovanna Biga
  Women at Work at the Ebla Court (a Syrian Court of 3rd Millennium BC.)

15h00-15h30  Massimo Maiocchi
  Women and Production in Sargonic Adab

15h30-16h00  Coffee break

16h00-16h30  Bertrand Lafont
  Women at Work and Women in the Economy during the Neo-Sumerian
  Period

16h30-17h00  Agnès Garcia-Ventura
  Weaving Textiles, Weaving Lives: Engendering Ur III Textile Work
  Force

17h00-17h45  General discussion on the 4th and 3rd millennia
Thursday, November 6 (2nd millennium)

9h30-10h00  Adelheid Otto
Women at Work during the 3rd and 2nd Millennia According to Depictions in the Minor Arts of Mesopotamia

10h00-10h30  Cécile Michel
Gender and Work in the Old Assyrian Private Archives

10h30-11h00  Nele Ziegler
The Data from Mari on the Economic Activities of Women (18th century BC)

11h00-11h15  Coffee break

11h15-11h45  Ichiro Nakata
Economic Activities of nadītum Women of Šamaš as Reflected in the Field Sales Contracts Published in MHET II/1-6

11h45-12h15  Katrien de Graef
Cherchez la femme! The Economic Role of nadītum Priestesses in Old Babylonian Sippar

12h15-14h00 Lunch

14h00-14h30  Sophie Démare-Lafont
Women at Work in Mesopotamia: the Legal Point of View

14h30-15h00  Matteo Vigo
Sources for the Study of the Role of Women in the Hittite Administration

15h00-15h30  Brigitte Lion
Work, Gender and Society at Nuzi

15h30-16h00  Coffee break

16h00-16h30  Josué Justel
The Involvement of Women in the Economic Agreements: The Case of the Syrian Late Bronze Age Archives

16h30-17h00  Masamichi Yamada
On the kubudda’u in the Emar Texts

17h00-17h45  General discussion on the IIInd millennium

20h00  Conference dinner for contributors
Friday, November 7 (1st millennium)

9h30-10h00  Eiko Matsushima
Women in Elamite Royal Inscriptions

10h00-10h30  Virginie Muller
Women and their Activities According to Cuneiform Divinatory Corpus

10h30-10h45  Coffee break

10h45-11h15  Philippe Clancier
Temple Female Staff and Power during the Neo-Assyrian Period: the Role of Prophetesses

11h15-11h45  Yoko Watai
A Prosopographic Data-Base of Women in the Neo-Babylonian Sources

11h45-12h15  Laura Cousin
Beauty Experts in the Documentation of the 1st Millennium BC: the Female Perfume-Makers

12h15-14h00  Lunch

14h00-14h30  Julien Monerie
Prebend-Owning Women and Temple Economy in Hellenistic Uruk

14h30-15h00  Violaine Sébillotte
Women, Gender and the Economic History of the Ancient Greek World

15h00-15h30  Coffee break

15h30-16h00  Keynote speech II
Saana Svärd Teppo
Women’s Work and Female Administrators in the Neo-Assyrian Palaces

16h00-17h00  General discussion on the 1st millennium and final discussion